in order to make possible the identification of the regions formed by the KMCC algorithm.

...by applying a moving average filter to the appropriate parts

...can be conceived which involve information hiding [3, 4]. In

...be calculated. In order to obtain other useful informa-

...Technology. His research interests include image/video communi-

...are absorbed.

...segmentation algorithm and the corresponding values used

...l

...representations. This can be achieved...